

The Godparents

1. The godparent must be a fully initiated Catholic (baptized, confirmed, receive Eucharist) at least 16 years old and must be leading a sacramental life in harmony with the Catholic Church. (CIC 874)
2. The godparent should be willing to accept the responsibility of assisting the parents in developing the faith life of the child.
3. The godparent may not be the father or the mother of the one to be baptized. (CIC 874)
4. Although people of some cultures sometimes choose multiple godparents, only two names can be entered in the Baptismal Registrar. (CIC 873)
5. A baptized and believing Christian from a separated Church or community may act as a Christian witness at the request of the parents, but there must be a Catholic godparent. (CIC 874)

“As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went out of the water. At that moment Heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from Heaven said, ‘This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased.’”
